How to Cook a Husband

A good many husbands are entirely spoiled by mismanagement in cooking and so are not tender and good. Some women keep them constantly in a pickle. It cannot be supposed that any husband will be good and tender managed in this way, but they are really delicious when properly treated. In selecting your husband you should not be guided by the silvery appearance, as in buying mackerel, nor by the golden tint, as if you wanted salmon. Be sure and select him yourself, as tastes differ. Do not go to the market for him as those brought to the door are always best. It is far better to have none than not to learn how to cook them properly. It does not make so much difference what you cook him in as how you cook him. See that the linen in which he is wrapped is white and nicely mended, with the required number of strings and buttons. Don’t keep him in the kettle by force, as he will stay there himself if proper care is taken. If he splutter or fizz, do not be anxious: some husbands do this. Add a little sugar in the form of what the confectioners call “kisses,” but no vinegar or pepper on any account. A little spice improves them, but it must be sued with judgment. Do not try him with anything to see if he is becoming tender. Stir him gently the while, lest he stay too long in the kettle and become flat and tasteless. If thus treated, you will find him very digestible, agreeing nicely with you, and he will keep as long as you want.

United Women
in Faith

Glendive United Women in Faith Meeting
Wednesday, September 21 – 5:30 pm
Fireside Room - Bring-your-own dinner!

At the summer UWif/UMW coffee, we talked about spending time this fall looking into some of our church history. Please come with a memory of something from your own history with the Glendive United Methodist Church or of another church you attended. It might be an early Sunday School, confirmation, or youth group memory, a special event or conference you attended, or something else.

Bring your dinner. Coffee, tea and dessert will be provided.

Questions? Ask Andrine or Millie.

United Women in Faith's annual Cotton Candy Booth at Dawson County Fair, held July 29-31, was very successful.

Thanks to a few more workers this year we were able to run 2 more shifts for a total of 16 hours. Once again the booth under the grandstand worked well for us.

We cleared $1,163.78 after paying expenses of $202.22. We made more than twice as many cones as last year, around 625!

Many thanks to all those who worked and bought cotton candy!

Millie and Andrine

Lance Phinney :

for keeping our flowers weeded and trimmed.

John Haas and Vern Lindquist :

for trimming the weeds in front of the parsonage and church

Phyllis Engle, Andrine Haas, Bill Labree, and Ron Haugeberg

for monitoring our roof "leaks" whenever it rains.

Ad Hoc Committee

for working to keep our church functioning without a pastor!

Harvest Festival Auction

Sunday, October 2 – 3:00 pm

Pie & Coffee sale starting at 2 pm

Our Annual Harvest Auction is coming soon, so mark your calendar and plan to come for some pie and fun! A sign-up sheet for pies is on the bulletin board in the Fireside Room.

What can you bring for the auction?

Are you a crafty person?

Homemade quilted, knit, crocheted, embroidered items are always good sellers.

Do you have a bumper crop of garden produce?

Now is a good time to sell those pumpkins, squash, apples, tomatoes, cucumbers and so on. Even the zucchini can be sold here!

Are you a cook?

Baked goods always sell well –bread and rolls; cakes, cookies, and pies; caramel corn, snack mixes and other goodies are always popular.

Have you been preserving some of the season's bounty?

Bring your homemade jams, jellies, or syrup; pickles or salsa.

Are you a painter or photographer?

A framed item could be just what an auction bidder is looking for.

Thank You

We appreciate our Coffee Hour Hosts. For the Month of August they were: Annie Freystone, Betty Carpenter, Joan Haugeberg, Vernone Spencer with Allie and Aubree.

On Line Giving

This site is set up to take you directly to Glendive United Methodist Church. When the form opens fill in your information and the banking information you want to use. Then click on any of the categories for giving. This is a secured site monitored by Easy-Tithe, a company we have contracted with. If giving a memorial or anything under UMCOR put in the comments the needed information so your donation is accredited to the correct place.

If you have any questions or need help, please call 817-657-9941 (Secretary Brenda's number)
